Areas Assessed	Common Module - Texts and Human Experiences

This task represents 25% of the total assessment marks in this course.

Outcomes being assessed

EN12-2 uses, evaluates and justifies processes, skills and knowledge required to effectively respond to and compose texts

EN12-3 analyses and uses language forms, features and structures of texts and justifies their appropriateness for purpose, audience and context and explains effects on meaning

EN12-5 thinks imaginatively, creatively, interpretively, analytically and discerningly to respond to and compose texts that include considered and detailed information, ideas and arguments

EN12-7 explains and evaluates the diverse ways texts can represent personal and public worlds

Assessment Task Description/Instructions:

You will be creating a 5-7 minute (no 10% lee-way) interactive presentation that discusses the representation of human experiences in your prescribed text and ONE related text of your own choosing.

This Related Text cannot be a text you have studied in Year 11 nor a current prescribed text from the HSC prescriptions list. You are responsible to ensure your Related Text does not breach these guidelines.

Your presentation must respond to the following statement:

To what extent do representations of human experiences offer new insights of the world and the behaviour of others?

In your response, make detailed reference to your prescribed text and ONE related text of your own choosing.

Your Interactive Presentation must also include a minimum of FIVE slides (PowerPoint or Google Slides) and be accompanied by a spoken recording of your voice. This is to be submitted electronically. You MUST also submit your transcript of your presentation. You will NOT present this to the class.

Success Criteria:

- Respond clearly and concisely to the statement
- Analyse your prescribed text in detail (Billy Elliot or Past the Shallows)

- Analyse a related text that is a different form (i.e. different text type) to your prescribed text e.g. Novel can be paired with a film but a film can NOT be paired with another film
- This Related Text can NOT be a text you have studied in Year 11 nor a current prescribed text from the HSC prescriptions list. YOU are responsible to ensure your Related Text does not breach these guidelines
- Make thematic connections between your prescribed text and related text
- Be 5-7 minutes long (no 10% lee-way)
- Have a minimum of 5 slides (see below for what content your slides might cover)
- Use a range of an Interactive features to engage the viewer and enhance viewer understanding, including a range of audio, visual and animations throughout your Presentation
- Contain a clear and engaging recording of your voice with variation in tone, expression and volume. NOTE: It is your responsibility to ensure your audio works correctly

In order to complete this task, you should follow the steps:

Step 1: Write the transcript for your spoken presentation, with analysis of your prescribed and related text that answers the question. You will have to upload this transcript as well as your presentation, when submitting this task.

Step 2: Create your PowerPoint or Google Slides presentation with slides to match your speech. Your slides should highlight key points, textual examples or textual features. Your slides might include:

- BRIEF annotations of quotes or images from your prescribed/related texts
- images or symbols that might represent the themes/human experiences of your prescribed/related texts
- images of characters or settings
- animations, slide transitions or sound effects
- diagrams or tables communicate the connections between the two texts

Your slides SHOULD NOT include large slabs of your transcript or your analysis.

Step 3: Insert a recording of your transcript into your PowerPoint or Google Slides presentation. See the links below for assistance.

SUBMISSION INSTRUCTIONS:

- You will submit your Presentation and your transcript to the Year 12 Standard Google Classroom ASSESSMENT Group using the Group code:
- The presentation should be saved as a Microsoft PowerPoint Macro-Enabled Slide Show - .ppsm (This is to ensure that when we open your file all your animations and images have been locked) or as a Keynote file or as an mp4 video file
- You must submit your Interactive Presentation using the following naming convention:
 - [Teacher last name].[Last Name].[First Name]
e.g. Park.Smith.John
- Ensure that you upload your transcript as a Google Doc.
- We will not take responsibility if your file does not work, will not open or you have submitted the wrong file. It is YOUR RESPONSIBILITY to ensure the correct file has been submitted by 9:00 AM on the due date.

Discriminating Feature:

- demonstrates conceptual and perceptive thinking through personal voice

If you are absent on the day that the task is due, you MUST see your teacher the next day (not your next lesson) that you are present at school to show your medical certificate and illness/misadventure form (refer to your Assessment Booklet for a copy of the form).

If you fail to show a medical certificate or illness/misadventure form a mark of zero will be awarded and an N-Determination warning letter will be issued.

Stage 6 students must be present 5 days prior to the due date or have a medical certificate explaining their absence.

Exemptions and extensions for any other reason will only be determined at the discretion of the Head Teacher, and only in extenuating circumstances. You must advise the Head Teacher as soon as possible if you know you are unable to submit the task on the due date.
